(Actaeus, Bianca x Margaret MacCaull, Trophy)

A promising new green, of which only a few have bloomed so far. The Margaret MacCaull parent, which won the Stewart Trophy in 1951, is dominant in the cross. All plants flowered have a clear green color with a red-brown pencil stripe in center of dorsal and down middle of the fine wide petals. The Actaeus parent has contributed vigor to the cross. Many seedlings produce three to four new breaks from one growth.

Unflowered plants large enough to bloom this coming season
priced at $10.00

Offer limited to 100 plants.

PLEASE READ THIS FIRST

Most orchid growers in Southern California know the high quality of the Wilcox Cyp collection. This listing is made up of the same plants that have been exhibited at many shows and Orchid Society meetings. Space must be made for 3000 Cyp seedlings, so all plants of which there were several divisions were included in the list.

All plants are healthy, well rooted divisions which are expected to bloom this coming season.

Plant size is based on one flowered and one unflowered growth, plus a new break, in practically every case. A few "economy" size plants are listed as single unflowered growths. These single growths are two-year-old propagations and many will bloom this next season.

Kodachrome pictures are available for nearly all plants listed, so you need not wait till flowering time to make a selection.

This is not a commercial establishment, so you must limit your prospective purchase to Saturdays or Sundays or evenings by appointment.

Since there are no employees as at commercial places, there will be NO SHIPPING at present.

This list carries no discount for any reason.

The flower quality must necessarily vary, as reflected in the price, but there are no culls or so-called "cats and dogs" included in this list.

The descriptive terms "large size," "good shape," "well balanced," "clear color," "wide petals," etc., are seldom used since they could apply to nearly all these plants. These terms used only if feature is outstanding.

The letters "A," "B," etc., after a name indicate different varieties in place of varietal names.

The letters "BA" or "SA" following a name mean Bronze Award or Silver Award from either the Cymbidium Society or Orchid Society of Southern California.

Varieties other than those listed may be available, since repotting and dividing is carried on continuously.

The right to limit quantities is reserved.
